A NIGHTMARE

Gives point to the fact that excessive or irregular eating disturbs the digestion. Nightmare or night hag has its day time correspondence in the undue fullness after eating, with the belchings and sour or bitter rising so often experienced after too hasty or too hearty eating.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures dyspepsia or bad stomach. When the weak stomach is strengthened and invigorated the whole body shares in the increased strength derived from food properly digested and perfectly assimilated.

"I was a victim of sleeplessness and extreme nervousness induced by chronic indigestion and I felt heavy, tired and worn out continually," writes Miss Mary Smith, of 1613 No. Wabasch Street, Colorado Springs, Colo. "Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was the only medicine which relieved me. Within a week after I began using it that heavy oppressed feeling after meals had left me, and I found that I was able to sleep better than for months previously. My appetite was gradually restored, general system was toned up, nervousness became a thing of the past and I have now been in splendid health for over nine months."

Sometimes a selfish dealer tempted by the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines will offer the customer a substitute as being "just as good" as the "Discovery." It may be better for him because it pays better, but it is not as good for you, if you want the medicine that has cured others, and which you believe will cure you.

1000-page Doctor Book sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover postage only. 21 stamps for cloth-bound copy. Formerly sold for $1.50 to extent of over 500,000 copies. Every family should possess a copy for ready reference in case of sudden illness or accident. It is illustrated with hundreds of wood-cuts and several colored plates. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

YOUR HAT

May Be a Stylish One, But It Makes Trouble.

A man usually buys a hat that's "in style," but the modern hat for men has lots to answer for.

Baldheads are growing more numerous every day. Hats make excellent breeding places for the parasitic germs which sap the life from the roots of the hair.

When your hair begins to fall out and your scalp is full of Dandruff it is a sure sign that these countless germs are busily at work.

There is but one way to overcome the trouble and kill the germs—that way is to apply Newbro's Herpicide to the scalp—it will kill the germs and healthy hair is sure to result.

E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Special Agents.

Two Dyspeptics

If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strength. If you are too lean the fat producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated.

Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much Pepsin and not enough Pancreatine.

Kodol

contains all the digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach, and in exactly those proportions necessary to enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all foods that may be eaten. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant, but it is a reconstructive, tissue building tonic as well. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Palpitation of the Heart and Constipation. You will like it.

Digests What You Eat

Dollar bottle holds 2½ times as much as the trial, or 50 cent size. Prepared at the Laboratory of E. O. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, U. S. A.

WAR FEVER SUBSIDING.

A dispatch from Berlin says the second interview of M. Bihourd, the French ambassador, with Chancellor von Buelow was devoted to a detailed discussion of the French note, but the foreign office abstains from giving any information regarding the results reached. It is semi-officially stated that the German answer has not yet been drawn up, hence the government and press resent the assertion in the London newspapers that the German government refuses to take into consideration every point raised by Premier Rouvier, and throughout the German press a growing impatience is manifested at what is regarded as a British attempt to embroil Germany and France. It is noted with satisfaction that some of the French statesmen begin to interpret Great Britain's interest in the Franco-German difficulty in the same way. The newspapers quote approvingly the words of General de Galliffet, the former war minister of France, that Great Britain alone wants war between France and Germany, for it would be to her own advantage and at France's expense.

Similar views are expressed in the German press, the writers arguing that Great Britain having gotten rid of Russia for a generation through the war in the far East, is deliberately working to fan the flames of the old hate between France and Germany and cause another war which must weaken her only formidable rivals in west European politics. It is noted that the relations between Germany and Great Britain never were worse than at this moment. Hints dropped in official circles indicate that chagrin was felt at the Berlin court at the fact that King Edward sent no more important representative to the Crown Prince's wedding than the young Prince Arthur of Connaught while it is plainly intimated that the failure of Emperor William to send any representative at all to the wedding of Princess Margaret of Connaught was intended to give expression to his resentment at this slight.

In view of this tension between Berlin and London it is believed that Germany will make many concessions in order to reach an understanding with France.

A dispatch from Paris says that although Germany's formal reply to the French note has not yet been received, there is reason to believe that the interview between Chancellor von Buelow and M. Bihourd, the French ambassador to Germany, resulted in quite fully foreshadowing Germany's intentions.

Public tension over the controversy is much relieved, the Bourse sharing in the improvement.

Revolution in Russian Poland.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg last night says that the red flag of revolt has been raised at Warsaw, Kovno and other places in Russian Poland out of sympathy with the victims of the rioting at Lodz and, so far as these cities are concerned, the situation almost approaches the dignity of open rebellion. The news received at St. Petersburg is meager, on account of the vigorous censorship, but it is evident that the troops are being resisted, and a repetition of the sanguinary encounters at Lodz is anticipated. The three big socialistic parties in Russian Poland are well organized and have some arms, but the authorities claim they have no chance of success single-handed.

Neither Jewish socialists, called the Bund, nor the social democrats are separatists, as are what are known as the Polish socialists, but they are all bitterly opposed to the existing government.

The affair at Lodz seemingly has accidentally precipitated a crisis, but the authorities declare there is no machinery for a general insurrection behind it. This, however, may increase the slaughter in crushing the outbreak. Many people believe that Governor General Maximovitch is hardly equal to the task, but so long as the disturbance is confined to Russian Poland the authorities believe it can be kept in hand. The main danger lies in its spread to socialistic organizations in other parts of Russia, with which those in Russian Poland are closely allied.

There were numerous red-flag demonstrations yesterday and the situation might have been worse had there not been a steady downpour of rain all day.

During a riot in the Protestant Cemetery at Lodz, Russian Poland, troops fired on a crowd, killing 12 persons—five men, four women and three children.

Twelve hundred casualties occurred at Lodz last week, thus far 348 Jews and 218 christians having been buried.

In the meantime the Caucasus is aflame with an insurrection on a high scale. The Mussulmans are actually besieging the Armenians in some of the towns. Peasants uprisings also have occurred in several provinces, notably Kharkoff, where the estates of half a dozen nobles have been burned and where the workmen resisted Cossacks with arms, wounding several of the soldiers.

The Children's Favorite.

WHY DOCTORS FAIL

AND MRS. PINKHAM SUCCEEDS

A woman is sick; some disease peculiar to her sex is fast developing in her system. She goes to her family physician and tells him a story, but not the whole story.

She holds something back, loses her head, becomes agitated, forgets what she wants to say, and finally conceals what she ought to have told, and thus completely mystifies the doctor.

Is it any wonder, therefore, that the doctors fail to cure the disease? Still we cannot blame the woman, for it is very embarrassing to detail some of the symptoms of her suffering, even to her family physician.

It was for this reason that years ago Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., determined to step in and help her sex. Having had considerable experience in treating female ills with her Vegetable Compound, she encouraged the women of America to write to her for advice in regard to their complaints, and being a woman, it was easy for her ailing sisters to pour into her ears every detail of their suffering.

In this way she was able to do for them what the physicians were unable to do, simply because she had the proper information to work upon, and from the little group of women who sought her advice years ago a great army of her fellow-beings are to-day constantly applying for advice and relief, and the fact that many thousands of them have been cured by following the advice of Mrs. Pinkham during the last year is indicative of the grand results which are produced by her unequaled experience and training.

No physician in the world has had such a training, or has such an amount of information at hand to assist in the treatment of all kinds of female ills, from the simplest local irritation to the most complicated womb diseases.

This, therefore, is the reason why Mrs. Pinkham, in her laboratory at Lynn, Mass., is able to do more for the ailing women of America than the family physician. Any woman, therefore, is responsible for her own suffering who will not take the trouble to write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice.

The testimonials which we are constantly publishing from grateful women establish beyond a doubt the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to conquer female diseases.

Furious Fighting.

"For seven years," writes Geo. W. Hoffman, of Harper, Wash., "I had a bitter battle, with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won and by the use of Electric Bitters. In unhesitatingly recommend them to all, and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine, to have cured such a bad case as mine." Sold, under guarantee to do the same for you, by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggist, at 50c. a bottle. Try them today.

Found a Cure for Dyspepsia.

Mrs. S. Lindsay, of Fort William, Ontario, Canada, who was suffering quite a number of years from dyspepsia and great pains in the stomach, was advised by her druggist to take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. She did so and says, "I find that they have done me a great deal of good. I have never had any suffering since I began using them." If troubled with dyspepsia or indigestion why not take these Tablets, get well and stay well? For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Quality vs. Quantity.

Hard muscles and strong body do not depend on the quantity of food you eat, but on its perfect digestion and proper assimilation. When you take Kodol Dyspesia Cure your system gets all the nourishment out of all the food you eat. It digests what you eat regardless of the condition of the stomach and conveys the nutrient properities to the blood and tissues. This builds up and strengthens the entire system Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Belching, Sour Stomach, Weak Heart, etc. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner Queen and Patrick.

AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 27, 1905.

THE PROCEEDINGS of the meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners will be found elsewhere in today's Gazette. Readers who have heretofore been instructed, edified, regaled or amused in perusing the debates had better make the most of the report which appears today, as in future the deliberations of the tribunal will be on the star chamber order, or on the lines followed by a European burgomaster and his advisors. While no one will die any the less wise by being deprived of the sayings and doings of the Police Commissioners, the absurdity of their action must be apparent. No one representing a newspaper should attempt to enter their conclave in future, but should one of this luckless class have the temerity to do so, it is a mooted question whether he could be excluded under America's free institution where the deliberations of all representative bodies are supposed to be open to all citizens so long as they are orderly spectators. Courts are open to the public, as well as Council, the School Board, Fire Wardens &c. In fact the Fire Wardens have invited newspaper men to attend their meetings, feeling aggrieved that the papers manifest so little interest in their affairs. The action of the commissioners last night was not the outcome of a recent conception. It may not be generally known, but it is a fact, nevertheless, that a meeting of the board was held in a private house on Sunday several months ago. One of the commissioners refused to attend and signified his disapproval of the new departure; hence further attempts to hold secret conclaves were for the time abandoned. The luckless reporters seem to have been guilty of nothing more serious than giving almost verbatim reports of recent meetings of the commissioners. This was necessary from the fact that public attention had been directed to the police force as well as to the board by the grand jury.

THE ADMINISTRATION'S recent apology for Mr. Paul Morton, Secretary of the Navy, is in part legal quibbling and in part invection tending to discredit the very able counsel whom the President himself called in to assist the Attorney General in the prosecution of the Santa Fe Railway and its officers, Mr. Morton among the rest. The insinuation that the demand for the prosecution of the railway officials was made merely because one of them was a member of the Cabinet is likely to rebound on the heads of the utterers. The prosecution was not permitted because the most conspicuous offender was Secretary of the Navy. In this matter the judgment of unbiased men will be that ex-Attorney General Harmon and Mr. Judson were better representatives of the public interests than President Roosevelt. As to Mr. Morton's explanation, which accompanies the President's apology, the Philadelphia Record says: "It is self-contradictory absurdity. He confesses to making illegal rebates and yet proclaims himself the champion anti-rebater of America. The apology and explanation taken together are equivalent to a judicial condemnation."

IN PORTLAND, OREGON, yesterday, during the trial of Senator Mitchell, charged with practicing before federal departments in Washington, Harry Robertson, Senator Mitchell's former private secretary, said the Senator expressed fear of prosecution and cried and swore and said that he ought not to be prosecuted in the Kribs case, as he had received only a few small checks for what he had done. Robertson identified a letter given him by Mitchell at Washington to be delivered personlly to Tanner, Mitchell's law partner, but which was given by Robertson to Prosecuting Attorney Haney and the grand jury. This letter told to the best of Senator Mitchell's recollection the plans made by Mitchell and Tanner to evade breaking the law. And this man still holds a seat in the United States Senate!

AT A RECENT meeting of the State democratic committeee the candidates were assessed to pay the expenses of the primary August 22. Candidates for Governor and for United States Senator will be required to pay $1,500 each. It has been sugggested in Richmond, whence all brilliant ideas now emanate (?) that in order to "help the candidates out," efforts should be made all over the State to raise money by popular subscription to defray the cost. Under this plan the great democratic party of Virginia would hold its primary by the grace of charity.

THE COURT OF APPEALS at Wytheville recently decided that the constitutional bond limit on the bond issue applies to the city of Staunton, and therefore the city of Staunton can issue no further bonds. This was decided in the case of Robertson vs. city of Staunton. The decision is published elsewhere in the Gazette. It is believed by many laymen, as well as lawyers, that should the highest court even get a "go" at the $50,000 bond issue of the city of Alexandria it would knock it sky high.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., June 27.

Dr. George E. Lorenz, formerly postmaster of Toledo, Ohio, who was tried for conspiracy with August W. Machen and the Groff brothers several months ago and sentenced to the Moundsville penitentiary for two years was brought into court this morning and formally committed to that institution. Machen and the Groffs were sent up immediately after receiving their sentence, but Lorenz, at first on account of ill health and subsequently because his presence was required in Washington for testimony in other postoffice trials, was allowed to retain his liberty. He will be taken to Moundsville the latter part of the week.

The third day's trial of Andrew A. Lipscomb, a prominent Washington lawyer, charged with the embezzlement of about $16,000 from the funds of the Washington Beneficial Endowment Association of which he was co-receiver, started this morning with W. H. Saunders, a real estate agent and banker, on the stand. Mr. Ssunders told of the business relations existing between the defendant and himself in 1901 which consisted of a certain trustee fund. He said that he had paid Lipscomb $1,000 for a Miss Henry, to whom Lipscomb was indebted, and which was secured by good collateral. The purpose of the prosecution was to show the abstraction of money from the Washington Loan and Trust Company, where the funds of the Washington Beneficial Endowment Association were kept, at or about the time that certain money was borrowed from the witness. He stated that when the $1,000 was paid to him, some time later, he was co-trustee with Lipscomb and did not believe that the money came from the trust fund at the Washington Loan & Trust Company. The next witness called was David H. Meade. He testified he went to the Washington Loan & Trust Company with Thomas M. Fields, then co-trustee with Lipscomb in the Washington Beneficial Endowment Association, for the purpose of having a $1,000 check cashed. He accompanied Mr. Fields to the office of Andrew A. Lipscomb and saw the defendant receive the money from Fields Mr. W. Oscar Roome, President of the Washington Savings Bank, was the next witness called. The books of the institution relating to the accounts of Lipscom and Fields were offered in evidence and examined by Mr. Roome. Deposits and withdrawals in 1899 were shown to have been made by Lipscomb and Fields. The bulk of Mr. Roome's testimony was objected to by the defence on the ground of the uncertain knowledge in the examination of checks and deposits, of the witness, who stated that he had never seen the books and that he could only testify as to their correctness from a bookkeeper's standpoint.

In the absence from the city of Secretary Taft and the President, officials here decline to discuss the report that Chief Engineer Wallace, of the Panama Canal Commission, has resigned. The belief is quite general, however, that he handed his resignation to the Secretary on Sunday when the two met in New York. It is known that Mr. Wallace has received an offer of a $60,000 a year position from a large contracting concern in the United States, and that it was on this account that he recently left the isthmus. Secretary Taft had received no intimation, however, that the Chief Engineer intended resigning when he gave him the necessary permission to come to the United States

Private Secretary Babcock this afternoon received a telegram from Mrs. Hay at Lake Sunapee stating that the Secretary passed a most comfortable night and was improving hourly and expected to be up in a few days.

Chief Statistician John Hyde, of the Department of Agriculture, is in charge of the bureau at present and is now preparing for the publication of the next cotton crop report, due at noon next Monday. The investigation being conducted by the secret service agents will not interfere with the regular statistical work. Associate Statistician Holmes's place has been taken by Mr. Hyde during the former's suspension pending the outcome of the investigation, and despite Mr. Hyde's absence abroad during recent months, he is thoroughly familiar with the job.

Messages were received at the Postoffice Department today announcing that the postoffices at Helenville, Wis., and Eldon, Mo., were robbed last night. Postmaster Reul, at Helenville, lost $170 in stamps and money and Postmaster Hart, at Eldon, reported a loss of $140.

Peace Envoys.

Russia has given reassurance of its intentions in the peace negotiations by placing the President in possession of the tentative selection of her plenipotentiaries, as follows: M. Nelidoff, the Russian ambassador at Paris, and Baron Rosen, the newly appointed Russian ambassador at Washington. Russia thus having taken the initiative, it is believed that Mr. Takahira, the Japanese minister, during his call at the White House yesterday informally told the President that Japan's selections, also tentative, were Baron Komura, the Japanese minister for foreign affairs, and Kogero Takahira, the Japanese minister at Washington. Official announcement of the names of the plenipotentiaries is withheld for the present. Both sides agree to meet early in August. No armistice is expected until the plenipotentiaries meet.

Massacred by Indians.

Tucson, Ariz., June 27.—At least twelve ranchers and several women and children have met death at the hands of a band of 100 Yaqui Indians who have been raiding the country along the San Miguel in the Ures district of Sonora, Mexico, and a party composed largely of American mining men, headed by Joseph Dewitt, has gone out from Poso station to rescue unfortunates who are in danger of being massacred by the Indians. Dr. Frank Touissant, who has returned from Ures, brought the news of the trouble which began last Friday. After several families had been murdered by the Indians, ranchers made a determined stand at Buenos Ayres ranch where, aided by 30 employees, they succeeded in repulsing the Indians, although Jesus Ortondo, proprietor of the place; his brother, Francisco; Luis Carranza, proprietor of an adjoining ranch, and several other neighbors died from wounds received in the fight. Mexicans took refuge in a ranch house and fought from the windows and roof. It is thought that fully 20 Indians were killed. The nearest armed force is stationed at Ures, and when Dr. Toussant left Hermosillo they had been sent to the scene of the outrages. Five Yaquis taken just outside of Lachume and thought to have taken part in the massacre were immediately hanged.

Four robbers in an automobile, believed to be the same who months ago created a veritable reign of terror in the small towns along the main line of the Pennsylvania Railroad near Philadelphia, and in Camden county, N. J., early this morning looted the postoffice at Elmer, N. J.

A number of the leading attorneys of Washington are candidates to succeed Morgan H. Beach as U. S. District Attorney, but it is believed that the President will appoint D. H. Baker, who was formerly an assistant district attorney. Mr. Baker lives in Gaithersburg. He is a fine lawyer, a member of the Catholic Church and a republican.

Four workmen were killed and a score more were injured in the collapse of a partly finished apartment-house at One Hundred and Thirty-sixth street, near Broadway, New York, during a terrific wind and rain storm yesterday. The building was to have been a six-story structure, only three stories of which had been erected. The men killed were at work on the third floor, and when the crash came were precipitated to the cellar, tons of brick and mortar falling upon them.

One woman was killed and 13 persons were injured, several probably fatally, by a collision last night between a freight train of the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad and two cars of the Back River line of the United Railways of Baltimore. The accident occurred at 10:10 o'clock at the point on Eastern avenue, Highlandtown, where the railroad tracks cross those of the street-railway company. Two street cars were coupled together, the motor of the first having blown out. The first got across the track, the conductor, according to a witness, having signaled that the way was clear. Then the end car of a freight train, backing slowly north, struck the rear trolley car, which was crowded with people, crushing and overturning it and pinioning the passengers.

The seventeenth annual session of the Virginia Summer School of Methods, the second largest summer school in the United States, being exceeded in numbers only by that at Knoxville, Tenn., was inaugurated yesterday evening at the University of Virginia. E. C. Glass, of Lynchburg, presided.

King George county has been cut off from communication with the outside world since last Friday, by reason of high water and the destruction of bridges by the flood. The electrical storm and rain-falls of Friday afternoon and night far exceeded, in magnitude, any ever known there. In some places fences, gate posts and telephone poles were completely undermined. It has been impossible for the mails to come or be sent out from Comorn since last Friday.

A Crazy Negress.

Hannah Bailey, a colored woman employed in the home of Thomas McLaughlin, in Richmond went crazy Saturday night and attacked Mr. McLaughlin's two daughters in their room in the darkness. When the men of the house, attracted by the screams of the young women, reached their room, the negress had one of them by the hair knocking her head against the wall. The negress had stuck her hair full of matches, and these were scattered over the bed.

She was at first thought to be a burglar. She fled to her room in the third story, and when approached threw every article of furniture she could lift at her pursuers. She was finally tied and turned over to officers.

The young lady who was so roughly handled is quite ill from nervous shock. The incident occurred at Mr. Laughlin's summer home, near the city.

War Risks.

London, June 27.—Lloyds has posted terms of five pounds per cent to cover steamers from all war risks between Germany and France for the next six months.

Today's Telegraphic News

Situation Critical.

Warsaw, June 27.—The situation here is becoming more critical and it is feared that the small clashes of yesterday between the people and the troops were but the prelude to others of a more serious nature, which may follow today. The police are terror stricken and are making no effort to preserve order. Everything is being left to the Cossacks who have been patrolling the streets for the last three days. The chief of police has received the resignations of a number of officers who refuse to stay longer in the city as they fear assassination. It is expected that martial law will be declared shortly.

Lodz, Poland, June 27.—Order has been restored here temporarily following the recent violent outbreaks and the situation appears to be improved. The tram cars are again running and the streets have begun to resume their normal appearance.

It is estimated that fully 20,000 Jews have left Lodz since Saturday to escape the massacre which they feared would be directed against them if they remained.

In the disturbances yesterday one man was killed and 25 were injured. The arrests numbered 672.

Bakers in the city and in the suburbs have joined the strike and this has shut off the supply of bread. The mobilization of troops in Warsaw is expected.

Most of the persons arrested in the last 24 hours are Jews. The prisons are full of men and women who have been taken in custody for fancied offences.

The laborers on thirty-two beet root plantations in the government of Podolia have joined the strike movement and unless they can be appeased in the near future the crop will be lost. Peasants in the government of Kovno are seizing the lands of various nobles and estate owners and occupying them.

At the Widseno Railway depot near Lodz today, a drunken officer ordered a company of Cossacks to fire on a train load of passengers. The Cossacks did as they were ordered, and fired two volleys into the coaches. The passengers fell to the floor in a panic. Fortunately the aim of the soldiers was not the best and only one person, a woman, was wounded.

Franco-German Negotiations.

Paris, June 27.—The Council of Ministers met this morning. A note was issued, following the meeting, telling what matters were considered, but the correspondent of the Publishers' Press learns from a good source that Premier Rouvier made an important statement to the Cabinet in regard to the progress of the negotiations with Germany in the Moroccan situation. Information which had been transmitted to the Premier from M. Bisourd, the French Ambassador to Germany, following the conference which was held yesterday between M. Bisourd and Prince von Buelow, was laid before all the ministers. It is the general understanding here that progress toward an understanding was made at this conference. No hint as to M. Bisourd's statement has been allowed to become public.

It is unofficially announced that Prince von Radolin, the German Ambassador here, will hand the German note in response to the communication sent recently to Berlin by Premier Rouvier, to the premier this afternoon. The recent meetings of the diplomats leading up to this act have been friendly and in government circles there is a feeling that the present misunderstanding between the two powers has about been straigtened out.

Later in the day the statement that the German note will be presented to Premier Bouvier, this afternoon, was officially confirmed.

The reason for the optimism of the French officials is the recent turn that the negotiations have taken. It is understood that Premier Rouvier gave the Cabinet members assurances, at their conference this morning, that the negotiations have now reached a satisfactory basis for holding a conference in Morocco. As this was the main point at issue, the Premier's announcement promises a happy solution of the trouble, which had threatened even to embroil the two nations in war.

The expected conference between Premier Rouvier and Prince von Radolin occurred this afternoon, and they were closeted together for over two hours. Their parting was very cordial.

An official said to the correspondent of the Publishers' Press that several other interviews will be required before any definite conclusion can be reached in regard to the much disputed question of the proposed conference over Morocco. Nevertheless, the negotiations are favorable.

Germany is showing a conciliation spirit as well as France by expressing her willingness to discuss the field of the proposed conference.

Charged with Larceny.

Boston, June 27.—Col. Henry W. Comstock, the mining operator, who two weeks ago claimed to have been robbed of $112,500 in securities on the Sound steamer Puritan, was arrested last night charged with the larceny of two New York Central and Lake Shore railroad bonds valued at $2,000. The complainant is Mrs. Cora A Frothingham, of Atlantic. She alleges that on March 28, she gave Colonel Comstock New York Central and Lake Shore collateral bonds valued at $2,000 with the understanding that he should purchase for her 100 shares of stock of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad. She claims she did not receive the stock, and that Colonel Comstock devoted the bonds to his own use. Yesterday afternoon Col. Comstock made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors. His liabilities exceed $200,000, and may reach $300,000. His assets are uncertain, being shares in two gold mines in Colorado, the value of which has not been established.

Deserters Leaped Overboard.

Flume, Hungary, June 27.—The Austrian steamer Trietse which arrived here today reports that 2,300 Turkish soldiers who had deserted from Yemen boarded the vessel at Aden. Afterwards sixty-six of the men leaped overboard in the Red Sea, fearing that they would be surrendered to the Turkish authorities. Of the remainder, all but seventy-three left the steamer at Port Said. Those who continued the voyage were sent to Greece.

Police Commissioners.

Mr. Worth Hulfish Before the Board—Refused to Give Evidence of Witnesses Before Grand Jury, But Excoriates Board and Policemen—Star Chamber Meetings in the Future—Newspaper Men to be Excluded.

The session of the Police Board last night was brief, although decidedly spirited. But little actual business was transacted, most of the time of the meeting having been consumed in listening to an arraignment of the police force as well as the commissioners by Mr. Worth Hulfish, foreman of the last grand jury. This gentleman had been summoned for the purpose of aiding the commissioners in examining into certain charges that had been made in a report submitted to the Corporation Court by the grand jury, but the object was a decided miscarriage, as Mr. Hulfish refused to impart the testimony of witnesses examined by the grand jury, and instead delivered a lecture to the board, interspersed with suggestions as to how the force should be reorganized and conducted, charged the Police Board with whitewashing certain offenders, manifesting no disposition to act and that they should make room for this successors, if the lethargy were to be continued. The members of the board endured it all patiently until Mr. Lawler grew restive and finally let Mr. Hulfish know that the board had obtained about all it was likely to get from him, and intimated that the members had heard enough. Mr. Hulfish received the thanks of the Mayor for obeying the summons and appearing before the board and he started to leave, but returned and reopened his battery of suggestions and plans until Mr. Lawler, not mincing words, took exceptions to any further reflection upon the board.

Mayor Paff presided, and all the commissioners were present. The Mayor stated the object of the meeting and Mr. Hulfish was asked to advance and be sworn. The latter saw no need of this procedure, but obeyed the request.

The Mayor in addressing him said he voiced the sentiments of the commissioners when he informed him that he would not be expected to give the evidence of any witnesses who had appeared before the grand jury, nor to reply to any improper queries that might be propounded him. As a good citizen, however, he could throw some light on the subject the commissioners were considering. "In your opinion," the Mayor said, "was the testimony of witnesses before the grand jury of a nature to warrant the dismissal of any member of the police force?"

Mr. Hulfish replied by saying that he did not recognize the right of the board to interrogate him concerning what witnesses had stated before the grand jury, but he was notwithstanding ready to aid the board in the work in which it was engaged. He referred to the presentment made by the grand jury. The judge of the court had instructed them to ascertain facts concerning the reported existence of speakeasies and policy joints; also existing police conditions and why certain things existed on the force. "The grand jury was truly a grand jury apart from himself, composed of ten determined men who took off their coats and collars and went to work. The witnesses examined by the jury could be summoned before the board." He defended the report made to the court and said the presentment had been made upon evidence before the jury. It had been shown that policemen entered saloons and some slept while on duty. He did not know which officers were guilty of those charges nor had he anything personal against any member of the force. No man, however should be on the force who used intoxicants, and the speaker gave at length his reasons for his convictions.

Among other things Mr. Hulfish said he had the honor to be a director in the Citizens' National Bank and the Alexandria Water Company. Were any of the employees of these corporations drinking men he would take measures against them immediately.

Mayor Paff repeated his query: "We accept what you say in this matter, but do you object to this question. Was there evidence before the jury sufficient to warrant action against any member of the force by the Police Board?"

Mr. Hulfish did not make a direct answer, but told the Mayor he could obtain evidence as the jury procured it. "You were in the jury room, and if the Police Commissioners were as determined as were as the jury they could ascertain as many facts as they did. "Be a policeman yourself some night." Mr. Hulfish charged the board with allowing certain things to go on until the court had to take hold of the matter. He further said the Police Board was lacking in harmony and ability to handle the situation entrusted to them. The grand jury's arraignment, he said, was not only a reflection upon the police force, but upon the commissioners also.

The Mayor—"You say, then, that the commissionors are not doing their duty."

Mr. Hulfish—"There is an evident disposition on the part of the board not to act. Why not summon witnesses as the grand jury did? You can utilize the services of the Commonwealth's Attorney, who is an able and willing officer." Mr. Hulfish then referred to the fact that Richard Burnett and Chas. Tyler had been indicted for keeping speakeasies and Harry McLearen for conducting policy. "Do quickly what has to be done," said the speaker.

The Mayor—"What, discharge all the members of the force?

Mr. Hulfish again avoided a direct answer, but went into an extended review of present police matters. Among other things he said he did not think the present head of the force fitted by nature for the position he holds, although a good man otherwise.

Mr. Lawler—"If the report as formulated at first by the grand jury had been sent into court would not the grand jury's arraignment been more stinging? In other words, was it not modified."

Mr. Hulfish—"Yes."

Mr. Graham—"Were you aware of existing conditions on the force before you went into the grand jury room?"

Mr. Hulfish—"Only from what I saw in the papers." Mr. Hulfish said some members of the force when charges were brought against them should have been dismissed, but offences had been condoned.

Mr. Graham—"You were aware, then, of such things before b coming a member of the grand jury.

Mr. Hulfish reiterated that the report was based upon evidence taken before the grand jury, and proceeded to recapitulate most of his previous observation.

Mr. Graham said the board knew all about the lack of unanimity which had been referred to by Mr. Hulfish, and said it was a difficult matter to handle. "But I think we might have the assistance of such model citizens as yourself in the work before us."

Mr. Hulfish again threshed over much he had previously said regarding old men, drinking men or others lacking the characteristics of gentlemen, but acknowledge that he had ever received courtsey from policemen.

Mr. Graham then told of the proceedings of the board several months ago when a futile attempt was made to procure evidence against a policeman who had been charged with drunkenness. Witnesses had refused to testify; hence the members of the board found their hands tied. The Police Board was as honest a tribunal as the grand jury. The former were all of one mind and there was no white washing. Mr. Graham reiterated that the board should have help from gentlemen like Mr. Hulfish.

Mr. Hulfish again said he knew nothing of his own knowledge; but the commissioners could get witnesses in the same manner as the grand jury procured them.

Finally Mr. Lawler observed that the board could get nothing further from Mr. Hulfish and implied that he should be directed to step aside.

The Mayor thanked Mr. Hulfish for appearing before the board, and the latter started to leave the room, but turned and repeated some of his previous observations concerning police matters generally.

Mr. Lawler arose and said he took exceptions to what Mr. Hulfish had said concerning the board. He was not expected to deliver a lecture to the board, and the summoning of him had been a decided miscarriage, as might have been expected.

Mr. Hulfish replied by saying that he did not favor the dismissal of all members of the police force. There were, he said, some good policemen, and he proceeded to make further suggestions as to what could be done. For instances Chief Webster could be given something to do. He was willing to pay his quota as a tax-payer.

Mr. Hulfish finally left the room, when Mr. Lawler observed that nothing whatever to the purpose had been obtained from Mr. Hulfish except an excoriation of the board. Had he been presiding over its deliberations he would have rapped him to order at the outset. He (Mr. Lawler) had always endeavored to perform his duty. He referred to Mr. Hulfish's suggestion to the effect that if the members of the Police Board did not understand their business they should make room for others. He should have been called to order by the Mayor.

Mr. Fisher agreed with Mr. Lawler in all that he had said concerning Mr. Hulfish's gratuitous suggestions.

The Mayor said he saw no reason to add anything to what Mr. Hulfish had said concerning witnesses brought before the grand jury. The board, however, should do something toward the betterment of the police force, and as a movement toward that end he suggested that in future the commissioners meet behind closed doors and exclude newspaper men.

Mr. Lawler opposed any such procedure. All meetings of the board, he claimed, should be open to any one who desired to witness the proceedings and people had a right to read descriptions of the same; if the board desired to transact business that it be done open and above board. He was opposed to hiding anything that was done or said.

Mr. Hill favored the Mayor's suggestion. Secret meetings of the board were held at one time.

Mr. Lawler—"Not since I have been a member of the board."

Mr. Hill said he was not afraid of people knowing what he had to say, and both he and Mr. Lawler said they never talked to the gallery.

The Mayor said he did not care for the newspaper reports, but they had occasioned considerable comment. The public was entitled to the results of the meetings, and the people would be satisfied with the same. He had recently been asked if newspaper men were allowed at meetings of the board, and several citizens had expressed astonishment that such a thing had been tolerated.

Mr. Lawler—"Suppose the City Council of Philadelphia had excluded reporters, the gas grab would not have been exposed. The Police Commissioners should have nothing secret from the people in whose interests they are working. Newspapers are for the public good.

Mr. Graham believed the business of the board could be exped ted if the Mayor's plan were carried out. The secretary could furnish newspapers all that was necessary for public information. He thought it the part of wisdom not to make the proceedings of the board public property.

The Mayor said the meetings should be on the order of those of the grand jury.

Mr Fisher referred to the fact that there had at one time been secret meetings, but that nothing had been accomplished by the rule. He favored allowing newspaper men to attend.

Mr. Hill did not object to them being furnished with actual results. He, however, favored the Mayor's plan to exclude them. Mr. Hill said at times there was a disposition on the part of some knights of the quill to make jokes out of certain things which occurred.

Mr. Lawler—"They will have material tonight to do this, as the meeting has been a joke from start to finish."

The board subsequently took a vote on Mayor Paff's plan and it was adopted as follows: Ayes, Messrs Hill and Graham—2. Noes, Messrs. Lawler and Fisher—2 The Mayor voted with the first-named, so the plan adopted.

The board then determined that in the preparation of the amended charter of the Police Board, it shall be provided that members of the force shall be elected bi-yearly, beginning February 1, 1906, after which the board adjourned.

In laying before you my plan for reorganizing the police force, as requested by a resolution of the Board of Police Commissioners, passed on June 21st, I shall be as explicit and as brief as possible:

1st. That we relieve Captain Webster of the duties as chief of the police department, and, in view of his long, faithful and active service, that we make him station master with day duty, as long as he is capable of attending to the duties thereof.

2nd. That we request the City Council to take the proper steps to have the city charter amended by the State legislature, in so far as it pertains to our police department, so as to do away with the office of lieutenant, and so as to provide for the appointment of three sergeants from the force, their length of service as such to be discretionary with the Board of Police Commissioners.

3rd. That we request the City Council to make an addition of one to the number of men on the force, in order to enable us to make the change and reorganization possible and effective.

If this plan meets with your approval the police force will consist, in all, of eighteen men, with the captain, two men detailed for station keepers, and three detailed as sergeants. This will leave twelve patrolmen, four for day and eight for night duty. This, with the sergeant, who will be required to patrol constantly during his street duty, will give us five men during the day and nine men during the night.

The station tricks can be arranged by certain tricks being provided for the sergeants and the captain.

At a meeting of the Police Commissioners September 25, 1900, Mr. Hill said "he thought as there was so much confusion, that it would be just as well to reorganize the force and reduce it about one-half and thus save that much money."

Captain Bryant said: "Under such circumstances that would be well."

Cities and Bond Issues.

In Robertson vs. City of Staunton, Alexander F. Robertson sought to obtain in the Corporation Court of the city of Staunton an injunction against the issue by the city of five bonds of $100 each, the proceeds of the sale of which were to be applied to improving the streets and alleys of the city, upon the ground that the city already had outstanding interest-bearing bonds and obligations in excess of the limit prescribed by the laws of the State. Upon the hearing the court dismissed the temporary injunction awarded, denied a permanent one and dismissed the bill. From this decree Robertson appealed, and Judge Keith, president of the Supreme Court, writing the opinion, reverses the judgment of the lower court.

At the time of the adoption of the ordinance providing for the issue of these bonds, the outstanding interest-bearing bonds of the city of Staunton aggregated nearly 21 per cent. of the assessed value of all the real estate within the city subject to taxation. The charter of the city authorized the issue of certificates of debt, or bonds, not to be irredeemable for a period greated than thirty-four years, under certain conditions, but did not name any limit in amount. By an act of the legislature passed in 1875 (code, 1887, sec. 1039) it was provided that those cities and towns (except Danville) whose charters do not determine the limit of aggregate indebtedness allowed to be created by them should not create an indebtedness in excess of 17 per cent. of the assessed value of their real, and 15 per cent. of their personal property. Section 127 of the Constitution limits the issue of bonds, etc., by cities or towns to 18 per cent. of assessed value of real estate, including existing indebtedness, but provides that that section shall not apply to those cities and towns whose charters existing at the adoption of the constitution authorize a larger percentage of indebtedness. The city of Staunton claimed that it was authorized by its charter to contract debt and issue bonds without limit, and therefore came within the proviso in section 127 of the constitution.

The Supreme court holds that section 1039 of the code applied while in force to the city of Staunton, operating as a limitation to the power conferred by the charter, but did not confer the power to create indebtedness; that it was plainly in conflict with section 127 of the constitution, and upon the adoption of the constitution perished on account of its repugnancy. The court is of the opinion that section 127 of the constitution is to be taken as dealing with the several legislative charters of cities and towns of the State; that the general laws by which cities and towns are regulated perished with the adoption of the constitution, if repugnant to it, or were left by that instrument to be dealt with by the legislature in the ordinary course of legislation; and that the limitations of the section apply to the charters of all cities and town which do not in terms authorize a percentage of indebtedness larger than that named in the section. The section is also held to be self-executing, and, so far from requiring legislative authority to make it operative, would of its own inherent force have rendered of no avail a statute which undertook to authorize what it has prohibited.

Cuban Diarrhoea.

U. S. soldiers who served in Cuba during the Spanish war know what this disease is, and that ordinary remedies have little more effect than so much water. Cuban diarrhoea is almost as severe and dangerous as a mild attack of cholera. There is one remedy, however, that can always be depended upon as will be seen by the following certificate from Mrs. Minnie Jacobs of Houston, Texas: "I hereby certify Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured my husband of a severe attack of Cuban diarrhoea, which he brought home from Cuba. We had several doctors but they did him no good. One bottle of this remedy cured him, as our neighbors will testify. I than God for so valuable a medicine." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

The Italian Cruiser.

Many people visited the river front yesterday and today to view the Italian cruiser Dalgoli now anchored off this city. Numbers of the officers and men have been ashore any many people have visited the ship. About seven years ago the Italian training ship Amerigo Vespucci lay off this city for some time and many Alexandrians went aboard and were courteously received and entertained by the officers. Those in charge of the Dalgoli are equally as hospitable. A modern man-of-war seldom comes up the Potomac, although during the civil war they were as common as naptha launches are now. They were, however, but slight improvements over the ships of Admiral Nelson's time. In 1865 the ram Stonewall, built for the Southern Confederacy, lay off Alexandria for a short time. She was regarded as a marvel and hundreds of people to the wharves to gaze upon her. The Stonewall had been delivered up to the United States at the collapse of the Southern Confederacy, and was later sold to the Japanese government. She was the nucleus of the navy afterwards acquired by the Mikado.

Nocturnal Disorders.

Among the cases in the Police Court this morning was that of several young men who were arrested Saturday night charged with disorderly conduct and fighting near the intersection of King and Fayette streets. Some who had been taken in custody failed to appear and forfeited their collateral, and those who stood trial could not be convicted of the charge alleged against them because no one could positively identify them. They were dismissed of the charge of assault, but the fact was established that they were in the neighborhood of the disorder, at midnight. Justice Caton told them that he would want them in the court again, as other arrests were to be made. He also called attention to the many complaints made by residents of that neighborhood, and said that the authorities intended to put a stop to nocturnal disorders.

Making Improvements.

The Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company has begun the enlargement of their acid plant, adjoining Fishtown on the north. The fertilizer factory on Princess street, between Lee and Union, has been practically rebuilt on a modern and enlarged scale. A pile driver and dredge are now at the wharf formerly used by the old Baltimore steamer Columbia, where a new and modern pier is to be constructed to accomodate the large schooners which bring fertilizer to the company. This wharf property has been going into decay for the past thirty years, or ever since the Columbia was withdrawn from the time. What was once a large and commodious wharf is now represented by some broken piles. These will be removed, the docks dredged and a fine pier built.

Corporation Court.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.]

Duff G. Lewis was appointed trustee in place of W. H. T. Lewis, deceased, under the will of the late Dr. M. M. Lewis.

Com. vs. Charles L. Tyler, colored, indicted for selling liquor without a license, accused pleaded guilty and was sentenced to serve 60 days in jail and to pay a fine of $50.

John Ennis, held on the charge of housebreaking, was released on bond in the sum of $500 for his appearance at the September term, Mr. J. M. Hill being his bondsman.

Baseball.

Another large crowd witnessed the game of baseball yesterday evening on the fair grounds between the Potomacs and the Orientals, which was the best played this season in Alexandria. The score stood: Potomacs, 4; Orientals, 1. Davis, who is somewhat of a spitball pitcher, tossed the ball for the Potomacs. He had plenty of speed and perfect control throughout the game. Cox, who pitched for the Orientals, put up a good game also. Both teams fielded fine. Another good game is booked for today at 5:30 o'clock between the Potomacs (who played yesterday) and the Old Dominions.

An Object Lesson.

Mr. Marshall, of Martinsburg, W. Va., was here yesterday in search of colored laborers for whose services he offered $1.50 to $1.75 a day. He desired to secure forty men, but succeded in obtaining but three. At the last session of the Corporation Court Judge Barley in his charge to the grand jury called attention to the many indolent men, both white and colored, who loaf about certain places without any visible means of support. The above is an object lesson.

Change in the Weather.

The sultry conditions of yesterday were followed by some rain, thunder and lighting toward the close of the day. The cloud, however, parted when it reached this city, and the thickest parts passed north and south of Alexandria. A delightful northwest breeze, however, followed and the temperature fell considerably. Last night was cool and today couditions have been pleasant with a fair sky. The thermometer at noon today registered 74°.

A Narrow Escape.

A soldier fell overboard from the steam launch Doc Reh near Shepherd's late yesterday evening. A companion who was on the launch jumped into the river, and after considerable difficulty succeeded in rescuing the drowning man. It is said that the Potomac, like Niagara Falls, claims, on an average, the sacrifice of one human life yearly. Three persons have found watery graves in the river in one week—a young lady and two men.

Granolithic Pavements.

A fine granolithic pavement has been placed in front of Peabody building on King street. Three others are being laid at the western end of the square, and others are being contemplated in the same vicinity.

Three colored boys charged with gambling were fined $2 each, and another charged with a like offense was dismissed.

The President in Boston.

Boston, June 27.—President Roosevelt, who comes to attend the Harvard commencement, and party arrived at the Back Bay station at 6:45 o'clock this morning, fifteen minutes ahead of schedule. Bishop William Lawrence met the President at the station, and rode with him to his residence. There was a very small crowd at the station, not more than 75 people being in waiting for the chief executive. An escort of ten mounted police guarded the President on the way to the Bishop's house. After reaching Bishop Lawrence's residence, the President took breakfast. Among those present were President Eliot, of Harvard; Judge F. C. Lowell, Rev. I. M. Crothers, and Private Secretary Loeb. The President will remain quietly at the bishop's house this afternoon. At noon he will go out to the Oakley Club, where he will take luncheon with the class of '80, of which he is a member, and be photographed.

Dr. John Morgan, the Boston eye specialist, this morning examined the President's eyes. The eye trouble, it is understood, is not at all serious. At 11:35 the President left the home of Bishop Lawrence for the Oakley Club. At that time rain was falling in torrents. The President was accompanied by Bishop Lawrence and his son, Kermit. The President's carriage was followed by others containing Secretary Loeb and the secret service men. The start for the Oakley Club was made early in order that the President might call at the home of Mrs. George C. Hill, the mother of the first Mrs. Roosevelt.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon Secretary Wm. H. Taft will reach Boston. He comes to Boston to receive a degree from Harvard tomorrow. This afternoon the President will have a conference with Secretary Taft, regarding Panama canal matters.

Equitable Life Assurance Society.

New York, June 27.—Grover Cleveland, supreme court justice Morgan O'Brien, and George Westinghouse, trustees of the majority stock in the Equitable Life Assurance Society, which was recently purchased by Thomas F. Ryan, from James H. Hyde, will meet this afternoon, at the Hotel Buckingham, in this city, to consider affairs connected with the trust. It is understood that the trustees will arrange a plan at this meeting, whereby the policy holders can designate their choice of men for the twenty-eight directors, who, under the new plan, are to be named by the policy holders. It is probable that the plan will be adopted of having the trustees draft a list of names for which the policy holders will be allowed to vote. The men receiving the highest number of votes may then be chosen by the trustees, who will cast the actual votes. Paul Morton, the new chairman of the Board, this morning announced that he had received the resignation of Charles Stewart Smith, a director.

Fire and Narrow Escape.

Boston, June 27.—Six persons were injured, one fatally, and several others had narrow escapes from death in a fire this morning in a lodging house at 157 Meriden street, east Boston. Only one person, the lady, Mrs. Josephine White, escaped by the ordinary means of exit. Four of the lodgers jumped from the windows of the second, third, and forth floors; two others, forty feet in the air, made their way along a narrow gutter to an adjoining house, and one man was carried down the ladder by firemen. The three daughters of Mrs. White, one of them carrying her 8-year-old daughter, crawled over a narrow plank from a rear window on the second floor to the fire-escape on the big Meriden building. Dan Rallis jumped from a window on the third floor. He landed face foremost on the ground and was horribly mangled. He will probably die.

The Kiel Yacht Races

Kiel, Germany, June 27.—The Kaiser's yacht Meteor III, the Iduna, yacht of Empress Victoria Augusta, and the Hamburg started in the yacht race today. The Emperor is sailing the Meteor III, and Cornelius Vanderbilt, Charlemagne Tower, United States Ambassador to Germany, and R. W. Goelet accompanied him as his guests. Mrs. Vanderbilt, Mrs. Tower, and Mrs. Goelet were the guests of the empress on board the Iduna. Henry S. Redmund's Ailsa contested with the Orion, the yacht of Prince Henry of Prussia. In the race between the Meteor III, the Hamburg, and Iduna, the Hamburg finished two minutes ahead of the Meteor III. Prince Henry's Orion defeated the Ailsa by the narrow margin of 90 seconds.

Miss Rogers' Disappearance.

Saranac Lake, N. Y., June 27.—The fate of Mary O. Rogers, the Virginia girl, who wandered away from the cottage where she was staying, is still a mystery. The search was resumed today, but thus far not a solitary clue to the whereabouts of the girl has been obtained. When Willoughby Smith, the girl's guardian, learned last night that no developments had come from the day's work, he immediately offered a large reward for any information concerning Miss Rogers' movements since Sunday night. If the woman wandered away into the mountains clad as she was, according to the nurse, only in a night dress and without shoes or stockings, she is probably dead by this time from exposure.

Royal Arcanum.

Boston, June 27.—The executive committee of the Supreme Council of the Royal Arcanum, that body wherein originated the new system of rates at present causing so much agitation in the ranks of the large fraternal organization, meets today. While it is one of the committee's regular meetings held always in Boston about six weeks after the annual meeting of the Supreme Council, the possibility that on this occasion the executive body will take some formal action regarding the new rates makes the session one of great interest and results will be watched for by Royal Arcanumites all over the country.

London Money Market.

London, June 27.—2:15 p. m. Owing to the distinct favorable change in the political situation, the complexion of the securities markets generally has altered for the better. This is practically reflected in the strengthening of gilt edged securities, American Railways are firm.

In the Supreme Court at Ottowa today the application on behalf of the United States made by Mr. MacMaster yesterday was granted, and the appeal of Gaynor and Greene, wanted in the United States in connection with harbor frauds at Savannah, Ga., was quashed with costs. The judgment was unanimous.

Mr. Wallace's Resignation.

New York, June 27.—While no official announcement has been made it is known that John F. Wallace, Chief Engineer of the Panama Canal Commission, who returned from the isthmus a few days ago, has tendered his resignation, to President Roosevelt. Neither Mr Wallace nor officials of the commission will discuss the resignation, but there have been a number of rumors to the effect that serious difference have arisen between him and the other members of the commission and Secretary of War Taft. Mr. Wallace, Panama Commissioner Shonts, and Secretary Taft met here on Sunday and the whole ground was gone over. After the conference Mr. Wallace announced his intention of resigning.

New York Stock Market.

New York, June 27.—The stock market was broader and more active during the first hour than it has been in a long period. Profits were taken on large accounts and the stocks sold were replaced at once by purchases of other issues forcing new stocks into prominence and continually changing leaders on the upward movement. Commission houses that were buyers a week ago sold this morning, their selling being about equally due to a desire to take profits, and fears of an unfavorable effect of the gold exports.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair and cool tonight. Wednesday fair, warmer; light north to northeast winds.

The Italian Cruiser.

Many people visited the river front yesterday and today to view the Italian cruiser Dalgoli now anchored off this city. Numbers of the officers and men have been ashore any many people have visited the ship. About seven years ago the Italian training ship Amerigo Vespucci lay off this city for some time and many Alexandrians went aboard and were courteously received and entertained by the officers. Those in charge of the Dalgoli are equally as hospitable. A modern man-of-war seldom comes up the Potomac, although during the civil war they were as common as naptha launches are now. They were, however, but slight improvements over the ships of Admiral Nelson's time. In 1865 the ram Stonewall, built for the Southern Confederacy, lay off Alexandria for a short time. She was regarded as a marvel and hundreds of people to the wharves to gaze upon her. The Stonewall had been delivered up to the United States at the collapse of the Southern Confederacy, and was later sold to the Japanese government. She was the nucleus of the navy afterwards acquired by the Mikado.

Nocturnal Disorders.

Among the cases in the Police Court this morning was that of several young men who were arrested Saturday night charged with disorderly conduct and fighting near the intersection of King and Fayette streets. Some who had been taken in custody failed to appear and forfeited their collateral, and those who stood trial could not be convicted of the charge alleged against them because no one could positively identify them. They were dismissed of the charge of assault, but the fact was established that they were in the neighborhood of the disorder, at midnight. Justice Caton told them that he would want them in the court again, as other arrests were to be made. He also called attention to the many complaints made by residents of that neighborhood, and said that the authorities intended to put a stop to nocturnal disorders.

Making Improvements.

The Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company has begun the enlargement of their acid plant, adjoining Fishtown on the north. The fertilizer factory on Princess street, between Lee and Union, has been practically rebuilt on a modern and enlarged scale. A pile driver and dredge are now at the wharf formerly used by the old Baltimore steamer Columbia, where a new and modern pier is to be constructed to accomodate the large schooners which bring fertilizer to the company. This wharf property has been going into decay for the past thirty years, or ever since the Columbia was withdrawn from the time. What was once a large and commodious wharf is now represented by some broken piles. These will be removed, the docks dredged and a fine pier built.

Corporation Court.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.]

Duff G. Lewis was appointed trustee in place of W. H. T. Lewis, deceased, under the will of the late Dr. M. M. Lewis.

Com. vs. Charles L. Tyler, colored, indicted for selling liquor without a license, accused pleaded guilty and was sentenced to serve 60 days in jail and to pay a fine of $50.

John Ennis, held on the charge of housebreaking, was released on bond in the sum of $500 for his appearance at the September term, Mr. J. M. Hill being his bondsman.

Baseball.

Another large crowd witnessed the game of baseball yesterday evening on the fair grounds between the Potomacs and the Orientals, which was the best played this season in Alexandria. The score stood: Potomacs, 4; Orientals, 1. Davis, who is somewhat of a spitball pitcher, tossed the ball for the Potomacs. He had plenty of speed and perfect control throughout the game. Cox, who pitched for the Orientals, put up a good game also. Both teams fielded fine. Another good game is booked for today at 5:30 o'clock between the Potomacs (who played yesterday) and the Old Dominions.

An Object Lesson.

Mr. Marshall, of Martinsburg, W. Va., was here yesterday in search of colored laborers for whose services he offered $1.50 to $1.75 a day. He desired to secure forty men, but succeded in obtaining but three. At the last session of the Corporation Court Judge Barley in his charge to the grand jury called attention to the many indolent men, both white and colored, who loaf about certain places without any visible means of support. The above is an object lesson.

Change in the Weather.

The sultry conditions of yesterday were followed by some rain, thunder and lighting toward the close of the day. The cloud, however, parted when it reached this city, and the thickest parts passed north and south of Alexandria. A delightful northwest breeze, however, followed and the temperature fell considerably. Last night was cool and today couditions have been pleasant with a fair sky. The thermometer at noon today registered 74°.

A Narrow Escape.

A soldier fell overboard from the steam launch Doc Reh near Shepherd's Jate yesterday evening. A companion who was on the launch jumped into the river, and after considerable difficulty succeeded in rescuing the drowning man. It is said that the Potomac, like Niagara Falls, claims, on an average, the sacrifice of one human life yearly. Three persons have found watery graves in the river in one week—a young lady and two men.

Granolithic Pavements.

A fine granolithic pavement has been placed in front of Peabody building on King street. Three others are being laid at the western end of the square, and others are being contemplated in the same vicinity.

The City Council meets tonight.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning.

Carrie Brown, colored, arrested by Officers Lyles and Allen charged with stealing $10 from Fannie Brown, was fined $10.

Tuts Olden, colored, arrested by Officers Nicholson and Henderson charged with stealing sundry articles, was fined $10.

Several young men charged with assault were dismissed for want of evidence.

Three colored boys charged with gambling were fined $2 each, and another charged with a like offense was dismissed.

Tucker, of Norfolk, will be solemnized at St. Paul's Church, that city, tonight. A number of Miss Tucker's relatives in this city left last night to attend the wedding.

New Railroad Work.

The contractors at work on the railroad improvements adjoining this city are rushing the same by working gangs of men night and day. The road bed is being graded and track laid, and in a few weeks' time it is believed trains will be running over the new work. The new depot is rapidly approaching completion.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The President in Boston.

Boston, June 27.—President Roosevelt, who comes to attend the Harvard commencement, and party arrived at the Back Bay station at 6:45 o'clock this morning, fifteen minutes ahead of schedule. Bishop William Lawrence met the President at the station, and rode with him to his residence. There was a very small crowd at the station, not more than 75 people being in waiting for the chief executive. An escort of ten mounted police guarded the President on the way to the Bishop's house. After reaching Bishop Lawrence's residence, the President took breakfast. Among those present were President Eliot, of Harvard; Judge F. C. Lowell, Rev. I. M. Crothers, and Private Secretary Loeb. The President will remain quietly at the bishop's house this afternoon. At noon he will go out to the Oakley Club, where he will take luncheon with the class of '80, of which he is a member, and be photographed.

Dr. John Morgan, the Boston eye specialist, this morning examined the President's eyes. The eye trouble, it is understood, is not at all serious. At 11:35 the President left the home of Bishop Lawrence for the Oakley Club. At that time rain was falling in torrents. The President was accompanied by Bishop Lawrence and his son, Kermit. The President's carriage was followed by others containing Secretary Loeb and the secret service men. The start for the Oakley Club was made early in order that the President might call at the home of Mrs. George C. Hill, the mother of the first Mrs. Roosevelt.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon Secretary Wm. H. Taft will reach Boston. He comes to Boston to receive a degree from Harvard tomorrow. This afternoon the President will have a conference with Secretary Taft, regarding Panama canal matters.

Equitable Life Assurance Society.

New York, June 27.—Grover Cleveland, supreme court justice Morgan O'Brien, and George Westinghouse, trustees of the majority stock in the Equitable Life Assurance Society, which was recently purchased by Thomas F. Ryan, from James H. Hyde, will meet this afternoon, at the Hotel Buckingham, in this city, to consider affairs connected with the trust. It is understood that the trustees will arrange a plan at this meeting, whereby the policy holders can designate their choice of men for the twenty-eight directors, who, under the new plan, are to be named by the policy holders. It is probable that the plan will be adopted of having the trustees draft a list of names for which the policy holders will be allowed to vote. The men receiving the highest number of votes may then be chosen by the trustees, who will cast the actual votes. Paul Morton, the new chairman of the Board, this morning announced that he had received the resignation of Charles Stewart Smith, a director.

Fire and Narrow Escape.

Boston, June 27.—Six persons were injured, one fatally, and several others had narrow escapes from death in a fire this morning in a lodging house at 157 Meriden street, east Boston. Only one person, the lady, Mrs. Josephine White, escaped by the ordinary means of exit. Four of the lodgers jumped from the windows of the second, third, and forth floors; two others, forty feet in the air, made their way along a narrow gutter to an adjoining house, and one man was carried down the ladder by firemen. The three daughters of Mrs. White, one of them carrying her 3-year-old daughter, crawled over a narrow plank from a rear window on the second floor to the fire-escape on the big Meriden building. Dan Rallis jumped from a window on the third floor. He landed face foremost on the ground and was horribly mangled. He will probably die.

The Kiel Yacht Races

Kiel, Germany, June 27.—The Kaiser's yacht Meteor III, the Iduna, yacht of Empress Victoria Augusta, and the Hamburg started in the yacht race today. The Emperor is sailing the Meteor III, and Cornelius Vanderbilt, Charlemagne Tower, United States Ambassador to Germany, and R. W. Goelet accompanied him as his guests. Mrs. Vanderbilt, Mrs. Tower, and Mrs. Goelet were the guests of the empress on board the Iduna. Henry S. Redmund's Ailsa contested with the Orion, the yacht of Prince Henry of Prussia. In the race between the Meteor III, the Hamburg, and Iduna, the Hamburg finished two minutes ahead of the Meteor III. Prince Henry's Orion defeated the Ailsa by the narrow margin of 90 seconds.

Miss Rogers' Disappearance.

Saranac Lake, N. Y., June 27.—The fate of Mary O. Rogers, the Virginia girl, who wandered away from the cottage where she was staying, is still a mystery. The search was resumed today, but thus far not a solitary clue to the whereabouts of the girl has been obtained. When Willoughby Smith, the girl's guardian, learned last night that no developments had come from the day's work, he immediately offered a large reward for any information concerning Miss Rogers' movements since Sunday night. If the woman wandered away into the mountains clad as she was, according to the nurse, only in a night dress and without shoes or stockings, she is probably dead by this time from exposure.

Royal Arcanum.

Boston, June 27.—The executive committee of the Supreme Council of the Royal Arcanum, that body wherein originated the new system of rates at present causing so much agitation in the ranks of the large fraternal organization, meets today. While it is one of the committee's regular meetings held always in Boston about six weeks after the annual meeting of the Supreme Council, the possibility that on this occasion the executive body will take some formal action regarding the new rates makes the session one of great interest and results will be watched for by Royal Arcanumites all over the country.

London Money Market.

London, June 27.—2:15 p. m. Owing to the distinct favorable change in the political situation, the complexion of the securities markets generally has altered for the better. This is practically reflected in the strengthening of gilt edged securities, American Railways are firm.

In the Supreme Court at Ottowa today the application on behalf of the United States made by Mr. MacMaster yesterday was granted, and the appeal of Gaynor and Greene, wanted in the United States in connection with harbor frauds at Savannah, Ga., was quashed with costs. The judgment was unanimous.

Secretary Hay Improving.

Newbury, N. H., June 27.—The condition of Secretary of State John Hay improved during the night. At eight o'clock this morning Dr. Scudder, the attending physician, made the following statement: "Secretary Hay passed a comfortable night, and is quite well this morning." The physician said that if the secretary continues to improve, during the day, that the doctor would return to Boston tonight.

Will Continue the Fight.

Chicago, June 27.—Amid tumultuous scenes the department store and railway express drivers Monday night rejected the peace terms of the employers. Following this action came a declaration from President Shea that special meetings of all teamsters' unions in Chicago would be called and their treasuries drained if necessary to continue the fight.

Mr. Wallace's Resignation.

New York, June 27.—While no official announcement has been made it is known that John F. Wallace, Chief Engineer of the Panama Canal Commission, who returned from the isthmus a few days ago, has tendered his resignation, to President Roosevelt. Neither Mr Wallace nor officials of the commission will discuss the resignation, but there have been a number of rumors to the effect that serious difference have arisen between him and the other members of the commission and Secretary of War Taft. Mr. Wallace, Panama Commissioner Shonts, and Secretary Taft met here on Sunday and the whole ground was gone over. After the conference Mr. Wallace announced his intention of resigning.

New York Stock Market.

New York, June 27.—The stock market was broader and more active during the first hour than it has been in a long period. Profits were taken on large accounts and the stocks sold were replaced at once by purchases of other issues forcing new stocks into prominence and continually changing leaders on the upward movement. Commission houses that were buyers a week ago sold this morning, their selling being about equally due to a desire to take profits, and fears of an unfavorable effect of the gold exports.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

No more deaths from last night's trolley wreck are reported in Baltimore. Public sentiment blames the gateman, who, although knowing the freight train was switching, allowed the trolley cars to cross, with the disastrous result. He refuses to talk.

Fire of mysterious origin destroyed the Sioux No 1. breaker, situated two miles east of Mount Carmel, Pa., this morning. The operation is owned by the Lehigh Valley Coal and Navigation Company, and was valued at $55,000 and employed 400 men and boys. The loss is fully covered by insurance.

Two attempts were made early this morning to set fire to a five story flat building located at 148th west Sixty-eighth street, New York, but the flames were discovered before they had gained any headway.

Ancient Platinum.

The discovery of platinum was long thought to be quite modern. In the first half of the sixteenth century it was noticed that gold ore from the Spanish mines in Darien sometimes included grains of a white metal which possessed the qualities of what are called the noble metals, but there were no existing records to throw light upon the matter. As the Spaniards prohibited its export, it was another hundred years before the metal began to find its way into Europe, and it was not till about 1750 that its properties were really investigated. In 1901 M. Berthelot, the famous French savant, made an astonishing discovery in Egypt. He was examining a metal box, once the property of an Egyptian queen of the seventh century B. C., and in it he found a plate which at first sight he took to be silver, but afterward turned out to be made of an alloy of gold and platinum. Doubtless the platinum came from the alluvial deposits of the upper Nile.

One Way to Catch Frogs.

In looking over a book of travels in France, written more than 100 years ago, I came across an interesting bit about the way of catching frogs for market. The author mentions the fact that frogs were sold by the hundred in the markets, that they were classed as fish and that only the hind quarters were eaten. But to come to the main point he says: "To catch the frogs the fisherman puts one of them in a glass vessel, which he dips into a brook, on which the creature, finding itself in so strange a situation confined in the midst of water in a transparent machine, or, I may say, invisible prison, begins to croak most melodiously, and by his croaking makes multitudes of other frogs come to him on every side, as if to rescue their companion, when the frog fisher valiantly seizes his prey."—London Chronicle.

Waiters and Tips.

A competent waiter is not a fool by a long shot, and no man is so liberal at any other moment of his life as when he is feeding well. A first class serving man at table can wheedle a quarter or half dollar out of even a stingy blatherskite by some delicate attention, by showing just the least bit of interest in his especial welfare. A German lieutenant in hard lines is waiting in a swell hotel here. His tips amount to $10 a day. He is incognito for the present. University graduates could do quite as well. The principal trouble is that waiting is regarded as too servile, too menial, smacking too much of slavery. But good waiters make valuable friends and earn several times as much money as bank clerks and shop salesmen. And the calling might be dignified.—New York Press.

Why He Was Called "Good Friday."

Alfred Bunn, the celebrated English impresario and operatic librettist of the last century, was not always in an amiable frame of mind, and one day he was seen at a rehearsal holding a wretched "super" by the collar and scolding him savagely. The poor fellow's fright and distress, says F. J. Crowest in his biographical anecdotes of famous musicians, attracted the attention of Malibran, the famous prima donna. The lady crossed over to the manager and said:

"Do you know, I shall call you 'Good Friday.'"

"Why?" he asked.

Bed Sores.

Bed sores are sores that form on those parts of the body that are undermost in the position taken up by the bed occupant. As a rule they never form unless the sufferer is confined to one position. When set up they are most distressing. Whisky or brandy used as a lotion to the healthy skin once daily will prevent them. When there are commencing sores they should be treated with white of egg mixed with powdered alum. The two should be well rubbed up together. If one has not a mortar and pestle it is a good plan to mix the things in a basin with a bone knife handle.

Torture of a Preacher.

The story of the torture of Rev. O. D. Moore, pastor of the Baptist church, of Harpersville, N. Y., will interest you. He says: "I suffered agonies, because of a persistent cough, resulting from the grip. I had to sleep sitting up in bed. I tried many remedies, without relief, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption Coughs and Colds, which entirely cured my cough, and saved me from consumption."
